THE ORDER WHICH ASSASSINATED CHIEF HENNESSEY.

BLACKMAIL AND MURDER ITS AIMS

The Brave Chief Knew Too Many of the Bandits' Secrets.

Under Threats of Death They Were Compelled to Pay Blood Money to the Murderous Scoundrels.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 20.-The Mafia, the secret Italian association to whose mandate the murder of Superintendent Hennessey is generally ascribed, has been known to exist in this city for many years. Honnessey is its first American victim, its operations heretofore having been confined exclusively o the Italian colony. Murder with it has been merely a means by which members of the society have been able o levy blackmail. Nearly every prominent Italian merchant in the city has been compelled from time to time to pay money to these secondrels under fear of assassination merchant tailor goods at if they refused. They suffered in nilence, because they feured that any attempt at exposure would bring down pon them the vengeance of the Mafia. It was not until the attempt last spring on the part of the Provenzano gang to out of the way that anything like a true exposition of the methods and operations of the society became known. Some of the Italian merchants who had been subjected to constant demands from the Mafia saw in this foul an op portunity to escape from the thralldom in which they were held. They subscribed large sums for the presecution of the Provenzanos for the murderous midnight assault upon the Matranza party, which in the particulars of lying in wait and the deadly volley furnishes close parallel to the more successful. attempt upon the life of Superintendent Hennessey.

A short time afterward the shooting of the Matranzas occurred. Before day-light the same morning Superintendent Hennessey had every one of the suspected parties in jail. He collected all the testimony against them and furnished all the witnesses in the prosecutive of the contion of the case. HE HAD TO BE PUT OUT OF THE WAY.

"It was the intention of the lawyers for the Provenzanos in the new trial, which is set for next Wednesday, to have placed Superintendent Hennessey on the witness stand. He would have given, as I know, a complete expose of the Mana, the local vendetta and the individual records of all connected with the case. It was no doubt a knowledge of this fact that caused the laying of plans to put Mr. Hennessey out of the way. Of the many parties arrested for the murder four have been identified as having been seen shooting at him that night. These are Antonio Bagnetto, Antonio Scaffid), Bastiana Incandana and one other. Another of the prisoners is Pietro Mastero, the man who occupied the shanty near or in which the assassins were concealed and which was rented for him by Joe Machea two menths ago. NOT ALL TRALIANS. Another witness to the assassination was discovered yesterday—a very intel-ligent negro named Patrick—whose testimony goes to show that Hennessoy's murder was not committed by Italians alone. Patrick saw two of the men who did the shooting, but was not able to identify any of the prisoners, as the backs of the two men were turned to him when he saw them, and their forms were enveloped in waterproof cloaks. When Hennessey fell he said that one of the men exclaimed to the other. "By > Judge Gresham is the favorite candi-date of the public, regardless of party, now as when Judge Brewer was ap-pointed. But this very fact seems to militate against him in the cavernous recesses of the President's mind.

A rumor was current in Chicago yesterday, according to a special to the New York World, that Judge-Gresham had been appointed. "The rumor," says the special, "was finally traced to a gentleman, who said that Judge Gresham had received a dispatch from Washington, asking him if he would be willing to accept the office, and saying it would be given to him if he desired it. The informant reluctantly said this much and declined to give any further particulars." The Judge was out of town, and Mrs. Gresham knew nothing of the rumored offer.
